SEEDS NATURE CAMP

What is SEEDS Nature Camp?

This is a hands-on investigation into the natural world around us as we learn about animal engineers, local habitats, pollinators, make things from recycled goods, and more. We do daily crafts, nature walks, and encourage our campers to form new friendships while engaging in collaborative activities!

Where will this AWESOME camp be held?

Jacksonville Elementary School, 3400 Hillendale Heights Road

SEEDS is run by Elementary Teachers Amelia Kwoka and Kathy Epple.

Please e-mail akwoka@bcps.org with any questions!

2024 Sessions Offered:

$150 per session (go to <https://stonealley.com/Program/CMRC>) or scan the QR code!

All sessions are identical, so please choose one.
(NO REFUNDS)

This camp is offered to students entering grades 1-6!

Campers will need a water bottle, small snack, and tennis shoes!
